Glic Concentric Clear Glass Brass Wall Light

The Glic Concentric Clear Glass Brass Wall Light designed by Fornasevi for Aromas Del Campo boasts a round form, where the outer layer is crafted from clear glass. However, what truly sets it apart is the textured glass surface. The glass is adorned with rounded grooves that create an exceptional and visually captivating texture. This intricate detail adds depth and dimension to the lamp, making it an exquisite focal point in any room.

At the heart of the wall light lies an inner circle made of brass, which not only complements the glass beautifully but also adds a striking element of contrast. The brass inner circle adds warmth and richness to the design, enhancing the overall aesthetic.
